

CAESAR KLEBERG WILDLIFE RESEARCH INSTITUTE

RANGE AND WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT

Graduate Student Scholarships

2022

BACKGROUND

The Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute has the opportunity to award annual scholarships to Institute graduate students who have demonstrated outstanding academic and professional excellence in their progress towards attaining an advanced degree (M.S. or Ph.D.) in range and wildlife management.

SCHOLARSHIPS

*Applicants will be considered for all scholarships. No need to apply for a specific scholarship.

- C. R. and Rebecca Palmer Graduate Scholarship (3 @ $1,200 each)
- Phillip M. Plant Graduate Scholarship (4 @ $1,400 each)
- Lon and Leigh Cartwright Scholarship in Grassland Management (2 @ $1,500 each)
- South Texas Quail Coalition Graduate Scholarship (up to total of $35,000)

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a graduate student (M.S. or Ph.D.) currently working as graduate research assistant in the Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute and enrolled in the Department of Rangeland and Wildlife Sciences at Texas A&M University-Kingsville.
- Students must be in good academic standing and have a >3.0 GPA.
- For the South Texas Quail Coalition Graduate Scholarship, students must have assisted with the STQC Annual banquet in 2022.

AWARD CRITERIA

- Record of academic accomplishment as a graduate student.
- Record of professional accomplishments such as professional publications and-or presentations at state, regional, national or international scientific meetings.
- Evidence of service to wildlife conservation efforts in South Texas.
- Demonstrated intention to become a professional in range and wildlife management.

TO APPLY

- E-mail a single PDF file of the Package of Application Materials to the Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute Scholarship Committee that contains the following information:
 1. A completed application form for graduate scholarships
 2. A list of graduate coursework completed and grades (i.e., unofficial transcripts with current GPA)

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: December 15, 2022

E-mail a single PDF file of the application materials to: Dr. Lenny Brennan, Co-Chair of CKWRI Scholarship Committee, at Leonard.Brennan@tamuk.edu